REASONABLE ACCOMMODATION

Any student who feels s/he may need an accommodation based on the impact of a disability should contact the Office of Disability Services, located on the first floor of the Students Center, next to the cafeteria, to discuss your specific needs and provide written documentation. At the request of the student, the Office of Disability Services will prepare a letter individualized for each professor. This letter certifies that the student has a disability and provides reasonable accommodations required by the student to obtain an adequate academic achievement. If you are not yet registered as a student with a disability, please contact the Office of Disability Services.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

The University of Puerto Rico promotes the highest standards of academic and scientific integrity. Article 6.2 of the UPR Students General Bylaws (Board of Trustees Certification 13, 2009-2010) states that academic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to: fraudulent actions; obtaining grades or academic degrees by false or fraudulent simulations; copying the whole or part of the academic work of another person; plagiarizing totally or partially the work of another person; copying all or part of another person answers to the questions of an oral or written exam by taking or getting someone else to take the exam on his/her behalf; as well as enabling and facilitating another person to perform the aforementioned behavior. Any of these behaviors will be subject to disciplinary action in accordance with the disciplinary procedure laid down in the UPR Students General Bylaws.
